CPR and BS6701:2016+A1:2017

At a glance...

BS6701

Variable Compliance

The variable compliance system allows different products to be assessed at different levels of stringency.

For this, the type of installation, the location of the installation and the type of product determine the degree of assessment. BS6701 has several options:

- A system of conformity assessment for each product family
- CE marking of products
- A framework of notified bodies...